Tower Hamlets Link Worker Service

Working with people in custody who have mental health issues

Are you finding it hard to Cope, Feeling Anxious Or Depressed

We can help with:

- Access to health services, including GP's and Community Mental Health Teams
- Housing problems
- Support around drug or alcohol use
- Referral to counselling services
- Benefits, budgeting and managing debt
- Access to education, training and employment opportunities
- Planning for the future
- Emotional support

We can offer this if:

- you have a connection to Tower Hamlets
- You are 18-65
- You have had contact with the police, court or prison

We aim to provide an open and sensitive service that is accessible to all members of the community irrespective of ethnicity, gender, religion, sexual preference or disability

What can you expect from us?

- We will try to contact you within 1 week of receiving a referral
- We can meet with you at a place that is most suitable for you
- We will provide a service that is confidential, non-judgemental and flexible to meet your needs
- You will have the opportunity to become involved in the ongoing development of the service
- If you are unhappy about anything you have the right to make a complaint or suggestion

How can you access our service?

You can refer yourself or get any professional to refer you. Just fill out the form on the back of this leaflet or give us a ring. After the referral is made we may need to contact other people for more information as part of the assessment process
