Projects Aims and Objectives
Daniel Gilbert House (DGH) provides accommodation and support to homeless men and women with complex needs. Within a Psychologically Informed Environment service users are supported using the Recovery Model to stabilise their substance use, establish networks of support, manage their health and welfare, and move on to either independent or lower support accommodation.
Role Purpose
To participate in the delivery of a high quality support service to supported housing service users which meets PRHA service standards, aims, objectives and performance targets.
Main areas of responsibility

1. Within the framework of a 'psychologically informed environment' work alongside the staff team to create and maintain a safe and welcoming environment.

To interview new referrals and book in after establishing that the project can meet their needs.
2. To engage and build supportive trusting relationships with service users, many with dual diagnosis/ complex needs, motivating and empowering them to recover and improve their lives.
3. To create and regularly update risk assessments and multi-agency risk management plans.
4. To undertake needs assessments, identifying skills and abilities, then develop and regularly review holistic user led support plans using the outcomes star to track progress.
5. To work shifts as part of a rota, working weekdays, weekends, mornings and evenings as required
6. To complete the local authority's SMART plans for all service users
7. To carry out assessments of drug/ alcohol usage with key service users and deliver brief interventions outlining risks, encouraging use of drink diaries, harm minimisation options and referral to specialist agencies.
8. To deliver high quality support to a caseload of key service users, including support to access health, benefits, training, other activities and services.
9. Using allocated personalised hours offer practical assistance with life skills, activities and appointments.
10. To initiate and support group activities, e.g. luncheon club, resident meetings.
11. To develop links and effectively liaise with a wide range of internal and external partners, including statutory and voluntary organisations (especially substance misuse agencies), participating in multiagency case conferences to plan support, minimise harm, manage risk and move on.
12. To appropriately anticipate, respond, report and record incidents, antisocial behaviour, challenging behaviour and matters of concern.
13. To share all relevant information (verbally and in writing) within the context of data protection and the confidentiality policy.

14. To work collaboratively as a team member, participating positively in team meetings, training, reflective practice sessions and away days, contributing to service improvement and consistent high quality service delivery.
15. To actively promote and support service user involvement in the design, development and delivery of the service and encourage peer support and involvement across PRHA and the wider community.
16. To ensure that all Health and Safety policies and procedures are followed including room and building checks.
17. To monitor vulnerable service users, with colleagues including the personal care worker and cleaning staff to ensure that care needs are met and rooms maintained. To support personal care where the service user is at risk.
18. To support service users with money management, following PRHA's Finance policies and procedures.
19. To ensure service users are safeguarded from abuse and promptly report safeguarding concerns through the line management structure.
20. To use IT systems accurately to communicate, record and update support plans, incident reports and other records on PRHA's database.
21. To act at all times within Providence Row Housing Association's rules, policies, procedures, standing orders and financial regulations.
22. To practically implement Equal Opportunities in your daily work, ensuring that services users' diversity and cultural needs are respected, and discrimination or harassment is challenged.
23. To maintain the highest standards of personal and professional integrity in line with PRHA's code of conduct.
24. Carry out other duties as may be reasonably required
